REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

There was no prior art found by the examiner that suggested modification or combination with the cited art so as to satisfy the combination of all the limitations in claims 1 and 24.

As to claim 1, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render limitations "means for selectively altering the orientation of the beam and the at least one article relative to each other wherein said measuring arrangements are adjacent each other and said altering means of each of said measuring arrangements include means for synchronously altering the orientation of beams generated by the radiation sources of said plurality of measuring arrangements", in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 1.

As to claim 24, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render limitations "repeatedly altering the orientation of the respective beam and respective ones of the plural articles relative to each other where the orientation altering step jointly moves respective discrete beams relative to the respective articles", in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 24.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
